THE PEABODY MEMPHIS NAMED “HOTEL WITH THE MOST CHARACTER” BY *SAVEUR

MEMPHIS, TN – September 16, 2015 – The Peabody Memphis was named the “Hotel with the Most Character” in SAVEUR’s 2015 Good Taste Awards. The Peabody was the only Tennessee location to be included in the list.

SAVEUR’s annual Good Taste Awards honors the year’s best in culinary travel. According to Editor-in-Chief Adam Sachs, “With this issue, we’re celebrating the people, places, and things that embody the idea of good taste right now. SAVEUR polled readers and reached out across a network of well-traveled experts and trusted contributors to honor those in the fields of food, drink, and travel who continue to inspire and excite.” Established in 1994, SAVEUR is written for sophisticated, upscale lovers of food, wine, travel and adventure.

Known as the “South’s Grand Hotel,” The Peabody Memphis is legendary for its charm, elegance, and gracious hospitality. Giving the downtown luxury hotel its distinctive ‘character’ are its five resident marching mallard ducks, decades-long tradition of rooftop parties, and reputation for fine dining at signature French restaurant Chez Philippe.
